

Alberta Wess Caise

April 16, 1923 - July 11, 2021

ALBERTA WESS CAISE was born on April 16, 1923, near Lexington in North Middletown, KY to Thomas W. Wess and Florence Harden. After a long, well-lived life, she began her heavenly home-going just after midnight on Saturday, and entered everlasting peace early Sunday morning, July 11, 2021.

In addition to her late husband, James R. Caise, Jr., Alberta was preceded in death by her son, James Allen Caise; daughter, Edwina K. Cowherd; granddaughter, Felicia Cowherd; and brothers Edmund Wess, Thomas Wess, Strawder Wess, and Harry (Iva) Wess.

After graduating from high school, she completed studies in electronics and was employed for many years before retiring from the Lexington Army Depot in Avon and the Veterans' Administration. Alberta was involved in many clubs and organizations and received many awards and honors. She was a very dedicated member of Wesley United Methodist Church, where she devotedly served in various capacities, was a loving friend, encourager, and mentor to many. She leaves an impressive legacy that is immeasurable.

Alberta is survived by her twin brother, Albert Wess, Sr.; son, Vincent B. Caise; sister-in-law, Helen Beatty; grandchildren, Alexander Turner, Shavon Caise, Latessa Moland, Esperita Caise, Dakota Caise; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, great grandchildren, and numerous friends.

Services will be held at Wesley United Methodist Church, 1825 Russell Cave Road, Lexington, on Saturday, July 17. Visitation: 10 a.m. – Noon; Funeral:

Noon.

(Arrangements: Smith & Smith Funeral Home)
