“ Anthony will be missed. Whenever I came to Magdalena, it was always great seeing him there. He always was happy to help me when I needed to do confirmation photos of the yearlings and was a wonderful hand with a nervous horse. They sensed his calm, easy patient demeanor and they would soon settle, making it easy to capture them at their best.

He faced his illness with bravery and a strong spirit. I will always remember Anthony and smile when I think of him. My heart is heavy for all who knew and loved him.
