

Beola Wilson Gill

February 5, 1929 - April 2, 2024

Beola Wilson Gill was born February 5, 1929 to the late Mr. William L. and Hazel L. Wilson. She was called home by the Lord on Tuesday, April 2, 2024.

She was a member of Pilgrim Baptist Church. Mrs. Gill was active in many, many events in Lexington. She worked tirelessly in all she was involved with. In the schools her children and grandchildren attended, every teacher in those schools knew her because of her willingness to work and help her children. Kayla, her granddaughter knew she count on her "Granny".

In addition to the public school system, Mrs. Gill lent time and support to the Lexington Youth Symphony Orchestra as well as the Lexington Christian Women's Club.

In obedience to the Great Commission, Mrs. Gill taught Sunday school to generations of children and adults. She sang in the church choir for many years and in earlier years of the church, she was in charge of the BTU workshop, served as president of the Deacon's Wives Auxiliary and was an active member in both the 1962 Club and the Progressive Club. In later years, she went on chair the Baptism Ministry. At the District and State level, Mrs. Gill served as secretary numerous times for the Howard's Creek Convention, chaired the local institute of the Lexington and Vicinity Baptist Women's Educational Convention, served as treasurer of the BWE Convention and was a lifetime member of the Missionary Society.

Mrs. Gill was the widow of Mr. James Gill, Sr., and this union was blessed with four sons, including Freddie Gill of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, who also preceded her in death. Remaining to cherish her memory and continue her legacy are her three surviving sons, Greg Gill, Tony Gill and James Gill, Jr., all of Lexington; eleven grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren; along with a host of other relatives as well as a lot of friends and her beloved church family.

Cemetery Details

Camp Nelson National Cemetery

6080 Danville Rd
Nicholasville, KY

Previous Events

Service

APR 10. 12:00 PM (ET)

Pilgrim Baptist Church
541 Jefferson Street
Lexington, KY 40508

Tribute Wall

WG

“ I met "Miss Beola" many years ago at Pilgrim Baptist Church. We stayed in touch over the years, especially exchanging cards during the Christmas season. "Miss Beola" was a kind and supportive friend. I will miss her. May she rest in peace.

Wanda F. Garr - September 13, 2024 at 07:53 PM