“ I called Courtney Cadillac to speak with Mr.Bias and learned that he passed away two years ago. I am so sorry to hear that he was a good person and great car salesman. I pray for his family.

“ I learned today of bias' passing and my heart is heavy. We purchased all our Cadillacs from him. He loved his family soooo much and we loved the conversations with him about them. I called the dealership every month when he got sick to check to see if he was back yet or how he was doing. I was told in May they probably didn't think he was coming back so I stopped calling. I went today to purchase that new car and saw that his desk was empty and asked. It broke my heart and I just hope the family knows how much he truly loved him and told complete strangers about them. My thoughts and prayers are with you all still

Thank you. This meant a lot to me as a friend. We met in the car business in the early 80's and tried to keep in touch.

I am just now learning of Bias passing. For some reason, he crossed my mind tonight and I googled him, and I was so sad to see that he was gone. I worked with him in my 20s. At superior nissan. So many wonderful memories. He was a good man and I am blessed to have known him. And what a smile

“ I'm so happy for Bias. I know he's in a perfect place -no chemo, no pain, free from the worries of this world, sitting at the feet of Jesus. I'm jealous. Bias and I had many, many conversations over the years where he was in sales at Courtesy Cadillac and I was the evening receptionist. I consider myself blessed by his friendship. He was a joy to be around. I miss him. But I'll see him again some day and we'll take up where we left off. Sue Yoakum
