

Carroll Coleman Hughes Sr.

May 28, 1943 - October 27, 2022

Carroll Coleman Hughes, Sr. was born May 28, 1943 to the late Joseph B. and Edna Mae Hughes. He was called home to eternal rest on Thursday, October 27, 2022. He joined his late wife, Mildred Jean (Webb) Hughes and late son, Anthony B. Hughes, along with his brother, Joe Hughes, and sisters, Margaret Ann (Hughes) Dunham and Rocelia Hughes (Jones).

Having confessed his love for Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age, he united with First Baptist Church, now First African Baptist Church, under the pastorate of the late Reverend Nutter.

Carroll was raised at 800 Florence Avenue and was a graduate of the original Douglass High School where he was a Basketball Standout. After school he joined the United States Air Force, and was a proud Veteran after his years of service to his country.

Carroll retired from Trane Company after 37 years of dedicated employment. Never one to sit down for too long, he was also a long-time Fayette County School custodian and a greeter at Walmart. Carroll had no enemies, he smiled at everyone he met and would enjoy a long conversation with even a stranger.

Carroll is survived by his daughter, Cecila E. Hughes; two sons, Carroll C. (Donnita K.) Hughes, Jr. and Joseph S. Hughes; along with many grandchildren, nieces, nephews, as well as a host of cousins, friends and a loving church family.
