

Charles P. Smith

July 21, 1925 - August 3, 2024

Charles P. Smith, a devout Christian, dedicated deacon, and beloved member of the community, peacefully transitioned to his eternal home on Saturday, August 3, 2024, at the age of 99.

Born July 21, 1925, in Garrard County, KY, to the late Charles and Cecil Logan Smith. Charles was a pillar of strength, service, and Faith. A proud veteran of World War II, he honorably served his country in the US Navy. Following his military service, he dedicated his career to supporting fellow veterans, working tirelessly for the Veteran's Administration until his retirement.

A man of deep faith, Charles was an indispensable part of his church family, First Baptist Church - Davistown, serving with passion as a Deacon. His spiritual guidance and unwavering commitment to his community were an inspiration to all who knew him.

Widowed for 24 years, Charles found solace and joy in tending to the earth. His green thumb was legendary, whether he was cultivating his own garden or working as a skilled landscaper. His ability to work with outdoor spaces was a testament to his dedication.

Charles was preceded in death by his beloved wife,

Carrie. His Father, Mother, a Sister and two Brothers.
He is survived by a nephew Burnett (Kelly) Weathers, a niece Barbara (Kenneth) Logan, several great-nephews and great-nieces, great-great nephews and nieces, a special friend Meacy Simpson & her daughters, his Deacon Brother Ralph Thomas, a special cousin Yevette Relford and a host of relatives and friends.
