

Helen King Caywood

March 29, 1926 - November 15, 2024

Helen King Caywood 98, of Lexington Ky, passed away at Baptist Health Hospital on Friday November 15, 2024. She was born in Lexington KY to the late George Washington King and Ethel Cole King. She was preceded in death by her husband Bill Caywood and three sons, James, Ronnie and Billy Caywood, also grandson Kevin Caywood.

She was also preceded in death by brothers Jack, Charles, Porter, Jim and Paul King, and sisters Margaret Baker, Jean Timmons, and Winnie Caywood. Helen was a longtime employee and cook for PDQ Market. She loved her customers and enjoyed getting to know many of them personally. She was an excellent cook and many workers stopped by daily to enjoy her home cooked breakfasts and lunches. She retired in 2014 at the age of 88 years old after suffering a fall.

Helen could best be described as a true "giver". She often gave more than she ever had. She raised her children, grandchildren and many others over the years that needed a motherly influence.

She is survived by her granddaughter Gina Caywood Wilson (Brian) and three great grandsons, Dustin, Derek, and Devin Wilson. Also left to cherish her memory are many nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Rest in Peace dear Aunt Helen 🙏 We only met you briefly at the Timmons family reunion in July 2018 and at a cookout with the family. You welcomed me and my Sue into your family without any hesitation and I'm so glad we got to share a laugh and a beer together. You're at peace now with your loved ones. Bless you, From nephew Dave in the UK and wife Sue 💔💔💔💔
