“ 1994 Jimmy was my training officers and the time he spent training me was a life changing experience. After Jimmy left the job we stayed in contact and spoke frequently. God blessed me and I did not even know it. Jimmy made me understand things that my fellow new hires never got. To this day I've used the things he tough men, both in my professional and personal life. After today the many stories I tell about my experiences with Jimmy will have even deeper meaning. I count Jimmy as on of my fathers and someone who truly cared to take time making me a better person.
