“ I remember when Jesse moved to New Jersey with her 2 daughters. I lived next door to her with my daughter. We became good friends (like sisters). I remember taking her to meet my Parents, who became her parents too. You see I knew she was a sweet person and needed to be around people that would love her & the girls, a safe place to turn to. God knew that She needed me and I needed Her. I'm so thankful for that. While my heart hurts that she is no longer here I believe she has gone to a safe place. Rest on my Sister, until We meet again. I love you.
