

Joshua O. Garrard

February 14, 1979 - December 28, 2021

Joshua O'Neal Garrard passed away Tuesday December 28, at his residence in Georgetown Kentucky. Joshua was born on February 14, 1979 in Lexington Kentucky to Cecelia Garrard- Johnson and Douglas Mason Sr. At an early age, Joshua accepted Christ at Broadway Missionary Baptist Church under the late Rev. Henry Baker, and later moved his membership to Broadway Christian Church under the watch of Rev. Raymond Smith.

Joshua graduated from George Roger High School in Winchester, Kentucky, and attended and studied Journalism at Clark County Bluegrass Community & Technical College. During Joshua leisure time he loved writing poetry, and occasionally wrote articles for the Winchester Sun Newspaper.

Joshua worked at EnerSys in Richmond, Kentucky and Johnson Controls in Georgetown Kentucky. At the time of Joshua passing, he was active doing a Podcast on Spotify titled "Shots Fired", and Garrard's Designs (personalized t-shirt designs).

Joshua leaves to cherish his memory, his mother Cecelia Garrard- Johnson, father Douglas Mason Sr., three children, son Joshua Hampton-Garrard, daughter Breajza Garrard, and son Shadah Brooks, Four brothers, Ryan Farris, Jason Mason, Shammah Israel, and Douglas Mason Jr. (Kahersha); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
