

Kenneth Sloan

May 21, 1947 - March 19, 2026

Obituary: Kenneth Sloan, age 78, passed away peacefully on March 19th, 2026. He was nicknamed “Mr. Magic”, as he was a multi-athlete who excelled in basketball. This led him to the Army where he served honorably in the Vietnam War. Kenneth retired with over 21 years of service with the VA, Keeneland, and worked many years with the Lexington Parks and Recreation Department. He was baptized at a young age at Greater Liberty Baptist Church and later united with Antioch Missionary Baptist Church where he served as a trustee, usher, and sang with the Men’s Choir. He was born in Monticello, KY to the late Sam Sloan and Lola (William) Taylor. Kenneth was preceded in death by his devoted wife, Darlene Sloan and three of his siblings; William Taylor Jr, Elwanda (Gordon) McNeal, and Donna (Bennie) Wortham, and his eldest son, Keith Johnson. He leaves to cherish five children: Chorya (Levon) Morton, Kennita Sloan, Keisha Sloan, Laron (Theresa) Raglin, and Tamara Davis. Three sisters, Bonita (Wendall) Hall, Murrell (Tommy) Miles, and Mallie Taylor; one sister-in-law, Mattie Yates and 16 grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, and great grandchildren. Kenneth also leaves to cherish a special friend, Evetta Jackson

Cemetery Details

Camp Nelson National Cemetery- Nicholasville, Kentucky

Previous Events

Church

MAR 25. 12:00 PM (ET)

Antioch Baptist Church
437 Ferguson St
Lexington, KY 40508

Visitation 10:00 AM Wednesday Antioch Baptist Church until time of service,

Tribute Wall

“ Hero Tribute Blanket was purchased for the family of Kenneth Sloan.

March 24 at 02:36 PM

“ A Memorial Tree was planted in honor of Kenneth Sloan.

March 24 at 02:36 PM