I find myself wanting to pick up my phone and call you as we talked if not every week it was every other week. I miss you so much my dear friend of 28 years. I miss your beautiful smile and that funny laugh you had. I miss our talks as we could talk about anything for hours. I miss getting dressed up and going to different events. Kimberly was such a special person full of talent. She could write, I have her book of poets, she could paint and she could put the perfect poets to photos that she taken and framed. She also had a great love for music and a love for the outdoors. Whenever I'm on an adventure I'm going to think of you my friend and I'm going to look up and say "Look Kim I'm doing the thing!" Love Love Love you Girl! R.I.P.
