

Marion Reynolds Hopkins, Jr

October 26, 1968 - February 13, 2026

Marion Reynolds "Hoppy"; Hopkins Jr., 58, passed away after a short illness at St.

Joseph Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky, with his loving family by his side.

Marion was born on October 26, 1968, in Flemingsburg, Kentucky. He grew up in Jeffersonville, Kentucky, where he built lifelong friendships and many cherished memories. Known affectionately as "Hoppy" to family and friends, he was a man of creativity, and skill.

Hoppy had a deep love for drawing and was gifted with artistic talent. He enjoyed working on cars and could often be found tinkering under the hood, always ready to lend a helping hand. Fishing was another passion of his, bringing him peace and time well spent outdoors. Above all, he valued time with family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Eulah Ingram Williams; his beloved wife of 35 years, Sherrie Lynn Johnson Hopkins; and his son, Douglas Ray Hopkins.

He is survived by his father, Marion Reynolds Hopkins and his wife Lola Hopkins; his two granddaughters, Lacy Hopkins and Destiny Hopkins; his sisters, Michella Hopkins and her significant other Tonya Harvey, and Kay Boggs and her significant other Doug

Elliott; his brother, Timothy Hopkins; his sister-in-law Kim Henderson and her husband

Bob; nieces Alexis Hopkins and Ava Hopkins; nephews Jamie Ballard, Shawn Ballard and his wife Samantha, Tyler Henderson, and Travis Culbertson, Stepdad Randall Trusty, as well as several great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and many dear friends.

He also leaves behind special friends Paul Sawyer and his wife Jackie, whose friendship meant so much to him.

Hoppy will be remembered for his kindness, his creative spirit, and the love he had for his family. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
