

Marva Louise Jones

April 14, 1937 - May 9, 2023

In the early afternoon of Tuesday, May 9, God in His infinite wisdom and with tender loving care gathered our precious one to Himself giving her rest, free from all pain, care, or complication.

Marva Louise Warren was born on April 14, 1937, to Fred and Virginia (Basemore) Collins in Tribbey, Kentucky. She was educated in the public schools of Hazard, KY and went on to graduate from the Nursing School of Danville KY in 1959 enabling her to pursue her lifelong calling of care for the sick. She also took immense pride and pleasure in caring for many of her siblings. She spent the early years of her professional career at the Frankfort State Hospital before moving on to Eastern State Hospital, retiring after 27 years of service.

Over 50 years ago, Marva united with Greater Liberty Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. A.B. Lee who baptized mother and older son on the very same Resurrection Sunday they joined. During the last several years, she enjoyed participating with the Golden Age Group.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by all eighteen of her siblings (16 of whom survived beyond childhood), husbands Robert Jones, Jr. and James H. Warren as well as stepmother Mattie Collins.

Left to cherish her memory and continue her legacy are sons Robert D. (Julia) Jones and William T. Jones; granddaughters Camille and Nikita Evans; great-granddaughters Cha-Trice, Nikilah, Nimya, Natalya, and Millia Jo; great-great grandson DeMario and great-great-granddaughter Nyla, all of Lexington, KY.

Special Family: Tracy Williams (Lexington), April and Regina Hall (Phoenix, AZ); Special Friends: Helen Allen (Frankfort, KY), Phyllis Rust, Joann Garth, Mickey Johnson, and Elizabeth Garner (Lexington) as well as multiple generations of nieces, nephews, cousins, additional friends, and neighbors.
