

Mary Louise White

June 15, 1932 - January 5, 2022

On Wednesday, January 5, 2022, the Lord called Mary Louise White (Lexington, KY), 89, home from this life to her heavenly home. Born June 15, 1932, in Lexington, she was the daughter of Helen Lyons and George Otis Ray.

As both of her biological parents were deceased by the time she was 4 years old, Mary was raised by her aunt—Ada (& Walter) Napier.

She attended Paul Laurence Dunbar High School.

Mary united with the Main Street Baptist Church by letter in 1996 under the services of Elder D. J. Ward. She was faithful in worship services, later serving as a Church Deaconess.

She was preceded in death by husband Sam White, grandson Danielle Hill, and great-grandson Kai Mason.

To most people, she was a quiet soul. But those who really knew her, knew she was an avid shopper of Home Goods, and loved collecting Jazz music. She loved the Lord, and often spoke of how blessed she was, and how good God had been to her. She also spoke fondly of a special friend, who was also her neighbor--Sis. Rosella Yates.

She leaves to treasure and cherish her loving memory five children--Jerome Hayes, Linda (Orrin) Whitt, Michael Hayes, Patricia (William) Hunter, Teresa Gordon; eight grandchildren: Stareka Austin, Andre (Kelly) Barber, DeRicoe Thompson, Danielle Hill, Orlando Hill, TaKesha Hill, Ashlei (Dhahran) Mason, Jordanate Waide--14 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild, with one "on the way;" other relatives; many friends; and a loving church family. Visitation on Wednesday, January 12, 2022 at 11:00am with service to follow at 12pm
