

Maryellen Bond

December 18, 1936 - January 31, 2026

Maryellen Bond, 89, transitioned to our Father's house on January 31, 2026. She was born December 18, 1936 to the late Roy and Mattie Mitchell in Fayette County, KY. She attended public schools graduating from Dunbar High School in 1954. As a child, she professed Christ as her Savior joining Main Street Baptist Church.

As a housewife/mother, she worked various jobs before being hired as a teacher's aide in their Head Start program originally operated by FCPS then later Community Action Council. She took college courses at Kentucky State University earning her CDA teacher's certification. Ms. Bond was "ole school" teaching her preschool students to become proficient entering kindergarten. She retired after serving 34 years with the organization.

Throughout her life, she enjoyed traveling e.g. Amtrak, excursions, casino tours, Canada/Alaska cruise and Cancun, Mexico. She was always busy in her flower beds, bird watching and star gazing. Reading was her passion with over 150 books being read per year when healthy, and watching CNN.

Maryellen's memories will be cherished by her children; Deborah (Michael) Tudor, JoEtta Slaughter, Robbin Bond, Paula (Derek) King and Joe (Daniele) Bond; her grandchildren Andre', Juan (Rasheka), Leonard (Teria) Slaughter, France' Bond-Wilson, Derek (Iesha), Ethan King, Journey, Avery, Sydney

Bond; her great and bonus-grandchildren, and great-great grandchild.

Maryellen was also preceded in death by infant son Robert Anthony Bond; siblings Roberta Mitchell, Ollie Harris, Dorothy Boaz, Leroy and William Mitchell, Margaret Hightower and Aunt Christian Thurman.
