

Myrna Carter

February 11, 1948 - August 14, 2022

Myrna Adrienne Carter was a phenomenal woman of God. She took God's word to "love thy neighbors as thyself" whole-heartedly. Individuals who might be shunned by others were welcomed and treated as God intended. Myrna loved spending time with her children and grandchildren and travelling with her daughters and son throughout Florida and Ohio. She loved life and being present with her family. Myrna was preceded in death by her parents, George W. Carter, Sr. and Margaret Carter, as well as brothers, Elliott Carter and Robert Carter. She will leave to cherish her memory: son, Reginald (Alicia) Boggs; daughters, Marcia Carter, Sherron (Timothy) Boggs, and Dr. Althea (DeShun) Walker; sister, Samantha (Roy) Martin; brother, George (Lida) Carter; nine grandchildren, NaTashia, Valeria, Damon, Quentin, Tyree, A'Lyric, Kameron, A'Kehli, and Kourtney; former sister-in-law, Diana Carter-Black; a life-long best friend, Anna Coffey; a host of nieces and nephews, other family members, friends and several "grand-animals."
