“ Raymond will be missed by many :(He told me that he loved me everyday that I worked with him. He did it in a tone that I can still hear now. Sometimes he would say, "I'll tickle your feet", and then laugh after. Raymond could bright up your day so easily when you are feeling down. I had the pleasure of working with Raymond 10 years. I'm very, very, sorry for your loss, he was a gift to many of us :)

“ Raymond was such a sweet loving man. When I got my promotion at work about 6 months ago I switched locations, where all my individuals were. I knew I would miss them all but working overtime allows me to still see them. As I type this post I get beyond choked up.....this job isn't for everyone and unless you have a heart to care for people you'll never understand that this job truly makes me a better person. Raymond and I saw one another every day when I was a Team Leader, he gave the best kisses, gave the best hugs, best back rubs and looking back he would ask me 1000X a day if he could have a movie. Now, I take that for granted.....what I would do to hear his sweet voice just one....more.....time 😭. I love each and every one of my individuals, but sometimes you have those who absolutely steal your heart away. Raymond Chenault was that individual. I miss your spunk, your laugh, your smile, your jump 😊, your pictures you drew for my office, you tickling me, telling me I'm beautiful.....everything. You definitely will be missed by your Independent opportunities family. As we go through the the next week please keep his house staff, adt staff, friend's and family in your prayers. Fly high little man, you never watched those movies and that's perfectly fine because you were the show.

“ Raymond was a very special guy, i remimber when i first started working at independent oppurtunties, he walked up to me and told me i was pretty and kissed my hand. I will never forget the smiles the laughs i had with raymond, and all the times we built houses with his blocks. And he looked at me and said hey this is your house. He will forever be in my heart. Rip little guy.

“ I remember taking walks around gym with him. He would perform dances in from of all friends. The electric slide the Cupid shuffle and YMCA. Loved showing off his movies. Enjoyed driving him out in the community. He always loved giving me high fives then telling me I was to slow and laughed. Then tried high five again as strong as he could strike. Made me smile so much. Will truly be missed. Very special pal.

“ It sure does feel weird walking into work every morning and not being able to see his precious face. I'm still wishing that he'll pop up in our office and grab my hand and kiss it and also bringing over his drawings of Spongebob, handing me a marker, and asking me to write my name on them. You are the most perfect guardian Angel for us all. We'll miss you sweet guy and you'll forever be in our hearts.

Heaven gained one of the sweetest and kind souls on this earth. I'll miss you little man, life isn't the same without you showing me movies and telling me "that's you!" Now I feel so guilty for always ushering you to the other side of the adt and telling you "not now Raymond I'm busy". Fly high little man and know you will be missed!

“ I remember the first time I meet him, he came up and ask me if he was going to go get a movie today. As time passed he would come up and blow kisses at me, one of the workers told him to do Fat Albert and he did I was just like fat Albert I love it. I will miss you a lot and miss you saying hey hey hey

Billie Jean Martin - January 05, 2017 at 07:59 PM

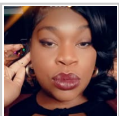

“ Raymond was the sweetest person ever! We would laugh and joke do puzzles and sing and dance! He was good at any sport and would out play you at them too! I miss him every day and he will always be my Papa Smurf and I his Smurfette! I'll miss the "hey hey hey it's fat Albert"!!! And" I go to the store"! I love you Raymond you my buddy!

“ My favorite memory of Raymond is that when I first started he came up to me and kept saying hey that's you pointing at the movies he brought in that day imma miss you Raymond. You will always be with me

paul adams - January 05, 2017 at 07:40 PM

“ I would make the schedules for Raymond to go to the store on Friday to buy a movie. When he came back he would ask me to go get another. Monday thru Thursday he would ask until Friday when I put him on to go. He would smile the biggest smile. RIP Raymond. Your smile is definitely one that will be missed

Amber Cole - January 05, 2017 at 07:28 PM

I remember that and his smile

Billie Jean Martin - January 05, 2017 at 09:37 PM

“ He was always telling my husband that he had to go that i was going to be his wife..he always had a smile on his face.. ricky took him on his vacation to Louisville in theme room he had a ball..they went to dave and bruster he played games and went shopping he had a blast.. he will be missed and he was loved by so many...
