“ I remember when the whole family would come and spend the weekend with my family and we would have the best breakfast fried apples, fried potatoes, biscuits, bacon, sausage, and we had the best time eating playing enjoying one another. Loved my cousins. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Rom 8:28....To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: Ecc 3:1

“ My Aunt Becky, my cousin, who I considered to be my aunt was there for me in so many ways in the early years of raising my daughter Daysha. She was selfless to so many people and from what I knew would give her last. Such a sweet soul, and will truly be missed. Daysha & I love you Aunt Becky.
