

Robert "Bob" Mack Hamilton

February 6, 1946 - November 28, 2023

Robert "Bob" Mack Hamilton, the husband of Eunice Murrell Hamilton, was born on February 5, 1946, to the late Willie Mack Hamilton and the late Henrietta Brooks Hamilton, in Fayette County, Kentucky.

Bob attended Fayette County Public Schools, including Lafayette High School. After his school years, Bob worked on King Ranch Farm for two years. However, he quickly found his professional calling in automotive sales and service. Bob started out in maintenance at L. R. Cooke Chevrolet in Lexington, and became one of the first African American car salesmen in the area, for a major automotive franchise, in 1969. Bob's passion for cars, his knack for identifying the right cars for the right people, and his commitment to great service, made him an award winning salesman and sales manager, and also resulted in countless relationships and friendships that continued throughout his life. However, the most important part of Bob's life was his faith in Jesus Christ. Bob accepted Christ on a cold November evening in 1955, during a revival meeting, at Zion Hill Baptist Church in Midway, KY. A girl named Eunice Murrell gave her life to Christ that same night. Of course, neither of them knew at that time that they would be joined together in holy matrimony less than eleven years later. Together, they would raise two daughters, and faithfully serve the Lord in numerous capacities.

As a member of Zion Hill Baptist Church for fifty-four years, Bob served in many ways, including choir member, trustee and church treasurer. Upon joining First Baptist Bracktown, he continued to work for the Lord, again serving as a trustee, and working in the ICare and Transportation church ministries.

In addition to his parents, Bob is preceded in death by his brother William Hamilton, Sr., and sisters Mary Hamilton Raglin and Thelma Hamilton Mulder.

Bob is survived by his loving and devoted wife of more than fifty seven years, Eunice Murrell Hamilton, daughters Karen Hamilton Holland (Dwayne) and Jennifer Hamilton Williams (Rev. Leon Clark), grandsons Steven Tyler Beatty (Adrienne) and DaRyan

Franklin Holland, granddaughters Mikaili Gore and Lela Camille Williams, great grandchildren Jayden Holloman, Avrie Spivey, Ava Beatty and Steven Tyler Beatty, Jr., sister Ollie Hamilton Raglin (Rev. Floyd), and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ There are very few people who have the power to impact a life for good and, for me, Bobby was that person. A genuinely kind man who was always available and always showed up. Over the years he engaged with my family and I with his and, as time went on, our relationship deepened to the point we felt comfortable calling on one another for any need whatsoever. I can count on one hand my “true” friends and Bobby is/was at the top of the list. He will be sorely missed, but our loss is Heaven’s gain. His legacy will continue through Eunice and their girls -
