

Robert Dewayne Jones

December 1, 1959 - February 26, 2024

In the afternoon of Monday, February 26th, God, in His infinite wisdom and with tender mercy allowed our loved one to exchange time gently and peacefully for eternity, releasing him from all earthly cares and struggles.

Robert Dewayne Jones (64), affectionately known as “Waynie” to many, was born on December 1, 1959, to the late Robert and Marva Collins Jones in Hazard, Kentucky. He was a graduate of Tates Creek High School and attended the University of Kentucky.

He worked for several years in the manufacturing industry with his father and several years in the medical field with his mother before moving on to work in a variety of fields. His last employment was in the parking system of the University of Kentucky.

Regardless of where he worked, he met no strangers.

At an early age, Robert professed a hope in Christ and joined Greater Liberty Baptist Church along with his mother, under the pastorate of Rev. A.B. Lee who baptized mother and son on the very same Resurrection Sunday they joined. He later united with the Trinity Baptist Church in Lexington, then finally united with the Pilgrim Baptist Church in Lexington, KY where he enjoyed volunteering with the Lexington Rescue Mission and nurturing plants around the church.

He had a passion for music of all genres and took pleasure engaging in music trivia with unsuspecting family and friends. Family was of tremendous importance to Robert. His desire was to do everything in his power to keep this family together. His prayer was that everyone might come to know Christ so we can all meet again in Heaven. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by many aunts and uncles along with several cousins of his generation. Left to treasure his memory and embrace his legacy of Family, is his wife of 31 years Julia Ann, brother William T. Jones, three generations of nieces and nephews (Lexington, KY) as well as multiple generations of cousins, friends, and neighbors.

Cemetery Details

Evergreen Memory Gardens

Paris, KY

Previous Events

Service

MAR 6. 12:00 PM (ET)

Pilgrim Baptist Church
541 Jefferson Street
Lexington, KY 40508

Tribute Wall

JG

“ Mr Jones was everybody's neighbor in the Cedarcrest neighborhood. He always addresses you with saying hello three times. May he rest in peace. Please pray for his wife who was always by his side. The Lord knows how much we can bear. Joyce Givens

Joyce givens - March 03, 2024 at 09:51 PM

RA

For few years for which I knew Mr. Jones, he was a complete gentleman. He was always kind to everyone. May his gentle soul rest in peace. I pray for his wife and his entire family to bear the loss. May he rest in the bosom of Jesus Christ. R. Adebajji

R adebajji - March 03, 2024 at 10:04 PM

AC

*Cuz you were special to us all we gonna miss you, get your rest. God was ready for you to finish his work, your work here on earth has been completed.
Give Aunt Marvel a big hug she is waiting on you to enter those white pearly gates. Love you cuz*

Angela Chenault Clayborne - March 06, 2024 at 06:29 AM